

Academic Accommodations

Students with physical impairments and learning disabilities will sometimes need accommodations to help them have an equal opportunity to learn. These can include seating location preferences, permission to tape lectures, and extra time on tests and other assignments [at Centre, time-and-a-half is the norm]. Whatever accommodations are provided, if any, should be the result of a discussion between the student and the College's coordinator for disabilities, Mary Gulley (x5223), who will then prepare a signed Accommodation Notice (a laminated sheet) for the student to show professors when an accommodation is necessary. In any course, the instructor must sign the back of the Accommodation Notice before any accommodation can take effect. It is the student's responsibility to discuss any necessary accommodations with Dr. Gulley and to process completely the Accommodation Notice through her office as directed.
